Hello,

Due to current embargo against Belarus implemented by the European Union you will have to change your address to one outside of Belarus or we will have to cancel your services to not violate international sanctions.

Mit freundlichen Grüßen / Best regards,

Russia is fine, i just changed the country to Russia - You can change the address now in the panel.
The issue is we can't accept payments from Belarus to our payment providers (PayPal bans it, our UK CC provider does not like either).

Hello,

Most EU countries don't care much, PayPal does not (as you surely have no PayPal account with registered address in Belarus) and most CC processors do not either... we rather don't have it for many reasons, security being top of them :)

Hi!
=)) When we work as software outsource - np, when we try to use something abroad - embargo ... =)
btw: approving or not approving by paypal - doesn't mean "embargo" , it means "they have no interest or other have reasons to work in country x or y" .
And even if you are citizen of Austria / Germany - for US based company you kind of not far from Belarus... :D

ok, thnx ...

Haha yes, the EU sanctions your government and some specific military people, in reality many don't care obviously - we just let Belorussians use Russian addresses and its fine, we just don't want any point that "might" cause trouble

I actually even have a server in Minsk as well but your traffic is so expensive
:( (ping by.william.su - from active.by)

Hello.
It calls not "expensive" - it calls "nothing survives .. " ... :D >:``-[
The traffic costs are the same as in Poland or near .. but the costs are twisted up in a dozens times by "everyone know the names" ... and these "profits" go somewhere near Singapore or British offshores ....

P.S. edis.at providers Minsk location? :D

hi ..

There is no other providers but beltelecom ... all external channels (official) - beltelcom...

All other "non-government" providers official-and-non-official affiliated with beltelecom or former =))) affiliated with beltelecom through-or-by- "everyone-knows-who" "persons" ...

Beltelecom sell traffic to "providers" and "competes" with them on retail market giving lowest prices... and so on ... sad stuff...

Hello, William..

Just have a bit experience with edis, have kind of problem, maybe you can help me:

badly needed kvm starter, but my new credit card will be ready only after holidays (Raiffeisen delays) - in a week ..

this kvm is only about non-commercial-personal use (ping/routes issues) ..

P.S. Holidays with high-quakelive-ping is kind of nightmare ..
